The Old Point Excursionists.

The excursionists to Old Point Comfort, who left this city Aug. 7th, are due to return this week. In fact several who did not take the whole trip are already back, among them Mrs. E. R. Cook, Mrs. S. R. Crumbaugh, Jim Cook, H. R. Little and C. P. Deering. About 50 went to New York on the 11th inst. and most of them came back by way of Washington. The daily papers of last Saturday noted the presence of the following members of the party at the National Hotel in Washington: Geo. O. Thompson, C. A. Thompson, Misses Annie Thompson, Porter Lowry, Fannie Garnett, Charlie Dickinson, Minnie McKee, Mollie Martin and Lizzie Graves. It is expected that every train will bring back some of the party this week, though a few will stay until about the 29th, when the limit on their return tickets will be reached.

A Defiant Prisoner.

Frank Oaten, of the Fruit Hill district, surrounded a quantity of officers Saturday and openly boasted that no two policemen could arrest him. Shortly afterwards he turned up at the bar house and tried to shoot Lewis Pope, col. The proprietor took his pistol from him and Oaten ran around towards Sixth Street pursued by officer Fritz. He was overtaken at the corner, but defied the officer cursing him and applying the most insulting epithets. Officer West came up and he and Fritz captured and searched Oaten, finding an open knife in his coat pocket. Fritz then ordered Oaten, to go with him, but he refused and became so defiant that the officer struck him over the head with his bludge, which had the effect of bringing him to his senses. Officer Fritz has been criticised for striking the prisoner, but the facts are that the prisoner refused to submit to arrest, until struck, and declared that Fritz could not and should not take him. Mr. Fritz is one of the best men on the force and it is pretty certain he would not have struck Oaten if such action had not been necessary to assert his authority as an officer of the law.

CREAM OF NEWS.

The O. V. Again Bobs Up.

The Nashville American says a company has been formed with 14 charter members who will apply for a charter for the "Nashville Northern Railroad."

The American further adds:

"This road, it may be explained, is a part of the Ohio Valley Railroad, which is already completed from Evansville, Ind., south to Princeton, Ky., and is being finished to Hopkinsville. It may come via Clarksville, but the assurance is given that it will certainly come to Nashville."

"The prime movers in this road are Capt. Brown, the Pittsburgh millionaire, and Col. Jordan Gites, a wealthy citizen of Louisville."

The proposition to Nashville stockholders is that one-fourth of the stock is payable only when the road is completed and running into Nashville; one-fourth in six months; one-fourth in twelve months, and the remaining one-fourth in eighteen months, and with an iron-clad guarantee that if the road should be sold to any other parties within twenty years the stock will be refunded in full to the subscribers."

The road runs through the richest and most fertile counties in Southern Kentucky, and already has secured a bridge site and other privileges at Evansville."

The conviction is fast forcing itself upon the public mind that the O. V. road has no intention of coming to this city, even should it go further south.

Little River Association.

The 76th annual meeting of Little River Baptist Association was convened in Princeton Wednesday of last week and continued in session three days.

Thirty-two churches in Christian, Trigg, Caldwell, Lyon and other counties were represented by about 135 messengers. The citizens of Princeton entertained the visitors in the usual style of Kentucky hospitality.

The session was one of unusual interest, a number of distinguished Baptists from other associations being present. Prominent among these were Eld. G. Bains, of Texas; Eld. C. C. Young, of Missouri; Prof. J. W. Rust, Rev. J. O. Rust and Maj. J. O. Ferrell, of Hopkinsville; and Prof. John Fruit, of Russellville.

Congressman W. J. Stone, of Lyon, and Hon. Wm. Wharton, of Trigg, were among the messengers.

Capt. W. J. Stone was elected Moderator, succeeding Rev. A. W. Meacham, and Rev. Jno. D. Jordan was re-elected Clerk.

The next session will be held with West Union church, at Grayson, in August, 1890.

Tribute to a Husband's Memory.

On Aug. 11, 1873, Peter Carpenter, of the Mt. Vernon district, was thrown from a buggy and killed. His wife was in the buggy also but escaped. A day or two later Rev. Thos. H. Shaw preached the dead man's funeral and the widow exacted from him a promise that he would preach at her home on the anniversary of the unfortunate accident every year as long as she lived. Mr. Shaw has faithfully kept his promise for sixteen years and on the 11th of the present month preached to a large gathering of the old lady's relatives and friends. The occasions have come to be much in the nature of family reunions, but they are attended by the neighbors for miles around. The day fell on Sunday this year, for the first time within the sixteen years. Two other years the day would have fallen on the Sabbath, but they happened to be leap years. Mr. Shaw gave out an appointment to preach again next year, provided Mrs. Carpenter is still living.

The Dawson Explosion.

The boiler explosion at the Dawson sawmill some days ago was more disastrous than at first reported. Jas. Jackson, the fireman, was killed outright, his head being blown off and his body thrown sixty feet. Dennis Purdy and Loke Messer were blown up ten feet into the air and landed forty feet away. Both were so badly hurt that they died the next day. Another old man named Brown Lovell was perhaps fatally hurt. The last reports were that he was steadily growing worse and was almost certain to die. Other parties were more or less injured, but will recover. The mill and machinery were badly injured by the explosion. The three men killed were all unmarried young men, workmen at the mill.

The Coroner's Contest.

On the 16th inst. Dr. Jao. L. Dulla served a formal notice of contest upon Dr. Jno. W. Lillard, recently elected coroner, upon the ground of his ineligibility to hold the office. Dr. Lillard is by his own admission ineligible, by reason of not having been in the State long enough. The certificate of election has been delivered to him, but he has not made application to take the oath of office as yet. The matter will be heard Sept. 9, before the county judge and the two nearest magistrates.

Dawson Springs.

Dawson is now enjoying a genuine boom. The Chateaufort and Salts waters are both at their very best at this season and all of the hotels are crowded with guests. The Arcadia, the leading hotel, had last week about 80 guests, every room in the house being filled. Among the Hopkinsville people who spent the week there were Mrs. J. I. Landis and Miss Anna; Mrs. Jas. A. Young, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Anderson, Col. J. O. Cooper and J. E. Cooper and Mrs. J. Chappell and children, of Cadiz.

Outing Near Grayson.

Special by Telephone.

GRAYSON, KY., Aug. 19.—A fight occurred near here yesterday in which a white man named Wm. Page was pretty badly cut by a negro named Pat Hawks. Page's wounds are painful but not serious. But little is known of the details of the affair.

A Residence Burned.

The dwelling house of M. V. Moss, near Pilot Rock, was burned at 2 p. m. on the 15th inst. The fire started in the kitchen and originated from a defective stove. The furniture which was nearly all saved, was insured for $500. The house was owned by Moss & Rose and was worth about $1500 with $1200 insurance in one of Louisville & Kentucky's companies.

Back From The Army.

The Latham Light Guards returned Saturday from their encampment of a week at Grayson Springs. Although the company was newly organized their drilling compared favorably with any of the half dozen companies there and their bright new uniforms gave them a decided advantage in looks on dress parades. Gov. Buckner and staff were present and the hotel was crowded with pleasure seekers.

Bad Luck All Round.

Mrs. Mary Payne who had taken a new rockaway from the carriage factory Saturday, got into it to go home Sunday evening, but Mrs. Joo. O. Rust, who was passing in her own vehicle, caught one of the wheels in those of her own and twisted one of Mrs. Payne's axles so badly that Mrs. Payne had to have her horse unhitched and find another way of getting home. She sent Harry Campbell over after Matt Starling's conveyance. After Harry got into it the horse took fright and ran off at full speed out North Main street. Young Campbell held him "in the middle of the road" and finally checked him up near the residence of Mr. John Stiles, without any damage having been done to horse or vehicle.

Held Over.

The Crofton parties charged with robbing J. E. Crofton's store were tried Saturday before E. Q. Tinsley and all of them held over. Zeb Childress, who confessed, waived examination some days before. Walter Taylor, his father Fred Taylor, and Harvey Nixon were each put under bonds of $250 to appear before the grand jury next month. From the testimony it is very probable that Nixon will not be indicted, as he proved an alibi by several reputable witnesses.

Entertainment at Dr. Smithson's.

Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Smithson gave an entertainment the 16th inst., at their suburban home, in honor of Miss Crenshaw, of Versailles, Miss Bramham, of Hopkinsville, and Mrs. Smithson, of Virginia. The names of the hospitable host and hostess were sufficient guarantees that the affair would be one of the most elegant and cheerful of the season. Waiters laden with choice butter-hoie bouquets were passed by Misses Maggie and Annie Smithson, to the ladies in the reception room, and as each one presented one of them to her escort the couples repaired to the parlor, where they were presented to Misses Crenshaw and Bramham and Mr. P. S. Smithson. The fashionable progressive games, conversation and promenading were in order. At 10:30 refreshments were announced and the gentlemen selecting their ladies entered the dining room. Here was indeed a feast for the eye. The room was artistically adorned with vines and flowers. It took but a glance to discover that the feast was not for the eye alone. "Temple vials of various kinds allured the taste." The menu included meats, salads, sauces, and pickles, dainty sandwiches, crackers, wafers, fruits, melons, loaves and cakes, in great variety. At 12 o'clock the gay party dispersed, the unanimous verdict of all being, that Mr. Smithson was really the prince of hosts, while Mrs. Smithson was his most worthy princess. Regrets were received from a number who were out of town or on the sick list. Those in attendance were: Misses Alle Crenshaw, Fannie Bramham, Mary Feland, Ellen Young, Cornelia Cowan, Annie Dade, Nellie Bottomley, Lizzie Wood, Mary Tyler, Annie Crabb, Maggie Wilson, Della Fugate, and Gerlie Bramham.

The gentlemen were: Quarles Mills, Dade Green, Jim Cook, Wm. Dennis, Marvin Lewis, Walter Fletcher, Tom Lashley, Bud Steele, Jack Moore, McClure Kelly, Tom Ellis, Allan Wallis, Fletcher Campbell, Hunter Wood, Willie Bramham, Peter Fox, John Edmunds, Nelson Fuqua, P. S. Smithson, Olen Gaudin, Fred Wallis, Cyrus Radford and Henry Abernathy.

Geo. Duncan, who killed Bob Cooley at Henderson, has been held over under a $1,000 bond.

The case of Drs. Young & Gunn against Owen & Margeson, the proprietors of the flying Jenny, attracted a large crowd in the city court room yesterday. The plaintiffs claim that the defendants are liable for a fee of $50 charged by them for setting the leg of Jim Jarrett, the negro boy who got his leg broken at the flying Jenny some two weeks ago. The case is being tried before Judge Winfree, in place of Judge Bradsher who is sick. The trial was going on when we went to press.

Wharton Wins.

Special by Telephone.

CADIZ, Aug. 19, 2 p. m.—The legislative tie between Wm. Wharton, Dem., and W. M. Clark, Rep., has just been settled by lot, Wharton being the successful candidate. The old-fashioned and simple way of using a sheet of paper was the plan employed. Two figures were placed upon the top side of a sheet of paper and a number corresponding to one of them was placed on the under side of the sheet. Mr. Wharton's luck led him to mark out the fortunate number and he will therefore be the representative from Trigg. Mr. Clark accepted his defeat with as good grace as possible and Mr. Wharton is busy receiving the congratulations of his friends.
